Defendants' Request for a Stay of Enforcement of February 3, 2023 Order

Dear Judge Wang:

This firm represents defendants ("Defendants"). Defendants will be filing objections, under Rule 72(a), with regard to Your Honor's order entered February 3, 2023. (ECF No. 230). Defendants therefore respectfully request that the Court stay enforcement of the February 3, 2023 order pending review under Rule 72(a). A stay is warranted here because, absent one, Defendants would be deprived of an opportunity for an orderly review. See Cazaubon v. Korean Air Lines Co., Ltd., No. CV-07-2197 (NGG)(JO), 2007 WL 1592979, at *4 (E.D. N.Y. June 1, 2007) (where the court, sua sponte, entered a stay of a remand order for a period of time sufficient for defendant to file objections with the District Judge assigned to the case). Defendants consent to any necessary extension of the current fact discovery deadline, in connection with this request, so as to avoid prejudice to Plaintiffs. Thank you for Your Honor's attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

STEVENS & LEE
